5. The price quoted to you includes bed linen, towels and all heating costs. We are not VAT registered. There are no other charges save in the event of damage to the property or its contents where we reserve the right to charge for restitution or replacement. The property should be left in a clean and tidy condition at the end of your stay.
6. In the unlikely event that we should have to cancel your booking due to circumstances beyond our control, such as fire or flood, our liability will be limited to repayment of all monies received from you.
